

All About Babies

- 1) _____: single cell
- 2) A zygote develops into an _____ after _____ weeks.
- 3) At _____ weeks, the _____ is officially called a _____.
- 4) The mother carries her baby for _____ months or _____ weeks.
- 5) The months are broken up into _____. There are _____ throughout the mother's pregnancy.
- 6) The _____ _____ carries blood, oxygen, and nutrients to the baby.
- 7) An _____ is a special scan done by the doctor so that the mother can see her baby.
- 8) Sometimes the baby will _____ or _____ while in the womb.
- 9) When the mother is ready to give birth, she will have _____
_____.

All About Babies

- 1) Zygote: single cell
- 2) A zygote develops into an embryo after 8 weeks.
- 3) At 10 weeks, the embryo is officially called a fetus.
- 4) The mother carries her baby for 9 months or 36 weeks.
- 5) The months are broken up into trimesters. There are 3 throughout the mother's pregnancy.
- 6) The umbilical cord carries blood, oxygen, and nutrients to the baby.
- 7) An ultrasound is a special scan done by the doctor so that the mother can see her baby.
- 8) Sometimes the baby will kick or punch while in the womb.
- 9) When the mother is ready to give birth, she will have muscle contractions.

